THE SEMINARY ALLIANCE.—As stated in the GAZETTE, yesterday afternoon's session of the Seminary Alliance was dispensed with in order to allow the members to visit the Theological Seminary near this city. Fire Department, paid the lads all the at-our reaching the Seminary, where they went in empituses, etc., the members were shown the various objects of interest in and about They took the boys down to James Ferritthat institution, after which they assembled in the chapel, where services were held by Mr. J. P. Tyler and Rev. K. Nelson. An address of weicome on behalf of the students some and able bedied.—Whig. was then delivered by Mr. L. Kitsolving, followed by prayer by Rev. Dr. Walker. A bountiful lunch was then served after which the students returned to this city, reaching here about 6 o'clock.

The Alliance met again last night and was addressed by Dr. Chamberlain, a returned Missionary from Brazil, and Rev. A. T. Pierson, of Philadelphia. In concluding his address, Dr. Pierson appealed earnestly to the young men before him to de vote themselves to mission work, when in the rapid progress of the nineteenth century continents were being opened up to civilization and they could put their hands to the springs that shape the destinies of na-

A prayer meeting was held in Christ Church at 6 30 a. m., which was addressed by Dr. Pierson, and by Mr. Garrabed, a theological student from Cilicia, a town not far from the birthplace of St. Paul. The meeting was led by Mr. Howard H. Russell, of Oberlin Seminary, and was presided over by Mr. Sayder, of Gettysburg. Over one hundred den gates were present.

prayer meeting. Brevity, vivacity and tender solemnity, combined with freshness of statement and hearty singing. There are no awkward pauses.

Europe is represented in the convention. There are 170,000,000 Mohammedans, and merely nominal Christians have been the chief hinderances to missionaries among ored clergymen, but we fail to hear of any volunteers for work in that field.

About 100 000 "consecrated, pure and angelic" women are needed at once for work on the among their heathen sisters.

The bairman of the entertainment committee would acknowledge his high appreciation of the kindness of the people of Alriosities. Dispatch.

Yesterday morning was the time fixed for the prize drill, but only the Alexandria Light Infantry, Captain Mushbach, appeared. This company was drilled in the presence of the United States Army officers, who were to have been the judges, acquitting itself very handsomely, and it was awarded the prize of $250, as no condition had been published stating how many companies should contest—Times.

THE ALEXANDRIA LIGHT INFANTRY The Alexandria Light Infantry last night returned from Richmond where they went to take part in the ceremonies of the laying At 9 a. m., the delegates again assembled of the corner stone of the Lee monument for a devotional meeting. Short prayers and also to enter the competitive drill at the State fair. On both occasions they acquitted themselves most creditably. At the fair yesterday, no company, though several were on hand, would compete with the A. L. I, so, after giving a short exhibition drill, that company, as stated yesterday, was awarded the first prize, $250. They were met upon their arrival at the depot here about eleven o'clock last night, by a concourse of friends, reinforced by the Wild West combi-nation, who vied with the company's most enthusiastic admirers in the warmth of their demonstrations. The march down King Street to the armory, headed by St. H Garrabed, of Cilicia and J. A. Eakin, of John's Academy drum corps, was an ovation—numberless rockets, roman candles and fireworks of every description, and pistol and cracker firing filling the air with blaze and noise and cheers them at every point. The Light Infantry express themselves as having had a delight ful trip despite the inclement weather.

> THE COUNCIL.-The Alexandria City Council has just recommenced its sessions after a recess of three months, during which time not even a called meeting was held. Alexander Pope's remark,

"Man never is, but always to be blest." does not apply to Alexandria, so far as the three months are concerned, however much her municipal congressmen may worry her, now that their holiday is over. How would it do for our own City Coun-cit to take a similar annual rest, their salaries of course going on without interruption?

-Lynchburg News. As the city seems to have gotten along pretty well during the recess of Council it is thought by many of the members that fewer meetings could be held with no loss to the city and some gain of time, at least, to the members, as they receive no salaries here.

THE OPERA HOUSE.-No lover of first class comedy should fail to see Augustin Daiy's great production "A Night Off," at the Opera House to-night. The cast is composed of some of the best comedy talent in the country and the piece will be given in MARRIED - Miss Onnie McLinden, so popular in Washington, and well known in Alexandria, was married in Washington last Wednesday to Mr. Wm. L. Lockwood, a popular young gentleman of Brooklyn, N. Y. Miss McLinden was considered a gem in theatrical circles and admired by all who knew her. The bride looked very pretty in an elegant traveling costume. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. Lockwood, with his beautiful bride, left for a trip to the North-ern States, and after a month's travel will reside in Brooklyn.

THE BELLED BUZZARD .- A note received at this office from Fauquier county to day

"The bell buzzard was seen on the farm of Mr. E. C. Turner, near The Plains, Thursday evening in company with about fifty others, feasting on deceased mutton, and was universally acknowled the 'belle of the ball.'
